

November 2022

Go to the Time Enough Events Calendar for Full Details

All Saints Day/ Day of the Dead – 1st November

Remembrance Sunday – 14th November

Guy Fawkes/Bonfire Night – 5th November

There are usually displays in the following areas, often on different days: Douglas, Port Erin (no fireworks 2022), Peel (Hop-tu-Naa), Laxey, Ramsey, Braddan Church and the Yn Cheili Chentaghyn.

The Nutcracker	Gaiety Theatre	1st – 2nd November
Cooish Manx Language Festival	Various Locations	2nd – 6th November
Douglas Fireworks	Harris Promenade	4th November
Ramsey Fireworks	Mooragh Park	5th November
Dhoon Church Fireworks	Hall Fields	5th November
Bonfire Night	Cronkbourne Cricket Fields	5th November
Laxey Fireworks	Laxey Valley Gardens	6th November
Bridges in the Landscape	Erin Arts Centre	7th November
Digital Isle	Comis Mount Murray	10th November
Night Must Fall	Gaiety Theatre	10th – 12th November
Manx Stars in their Eyes	Villa Marina	12th November
Christine Collister and Friends	Centenary Centre	12th November
Speakeasy	Woodbourne House	12th November
Awards for Excellence	Villa Marina	17th November
Secondary Cause of Death	Erin Arts Centre	17th – 19th November
Bye Bye Baby	Gaiety Theatre	19th November
Syd Quirk Half Marathon	Ronaldsway	20th November
Dial 'M' for Murder	Gaiety Theatre	24th – 26th November
Elegies for Angels, Punks and Raging Queens	Studio Theatre	24th – 25th November
Sasha	Villa Marina	25th November
Christmas Concert	Erin Arts Centre	26th November
The Really Big Manx Sing	Trinity Methodist Church	26th November

For Christmas Markets around the Island see our separate post or go to our Events Calendar.

Manx National Heritage have extended their season. Go to our News Page for all the details. The steam trains are also still running at the weekends this year.

If you are holding an event please let us know! Include the date, time, venue. Add a photo if possible.